

Full Stack Web Developer

JS / PHP / Symfony
English / French / Spanish

Versatile and ambitious, I have acquired relational and organizational skills through my various professional experiences in France and abroad.

Now, I am a web developer.

This vocation came during my travels during which I was able to observe the shortage of quality websites and my irrepressible desire to remedy it..

I'll be able to put all my skills, adaptability, curiosity and motivation to work for an innovative company that cares about its environmental impact.
